

Jon Preshaw Tax Ltd is a specialist tax advisory practice which supports professional advisers and their clients to manage and resolve tax disputes.

Based on our extensive knowledge and experience of HMRC's powers, procedures and practices, we help take the stress out of managing your clients' interactions with HMRC.

Some of the areas where we can provide support are:

- Making and managing disclosures to HMRC (including through the Worldwide Disclosure Facility ('WDF'))
- Challenging HMRC assessments and penalties
- Managing investigations conducted under Code of Practice 8 and 9
- Supporting clients to resolve disputes relating to tax avoidance schemes
- Utilising Alternative Dispute Resolution ('ADR') to resolve disputes
- Advising on compliance with CCO and SAO obligations
- Assisting clients to resolve payment difficulties with HMRC

Tax disputes and investigations can be complex and time-consuming and can place significant strain on clients and their advisers.

We work closely with clients' professional advisers to ensure that disputes, investigations and disclosures are resolved as efficiently as possible, minimising disruption and cost.

We can provide flexible support on an issue by issue basis or manage projects on your behalf according to you and your clients' requirements.

Jon Preshaw

FOUNDER AND MANAGING DIRECTOR

Prior to establishing Jon Preshaw Tax, Jon spent 14 years with PwC running the Tax Dispute practice in the North of England and Scotland. He had previously trained as an Inspector of Taxes and worked in HMRC's Special Compliance Office as an Investigator and Group Leader, managing a team of officers who dealt with some of the largest and most complex investigations undertaken by HMRC. Jon advises a broad range of clients but has particular specialisms around managing enquiries and disclosures involving offshore taxation and assisting clients to unravel complex tax avoidance structures.

Ben Proctor

ASSOCIATE TAX DISPUTE DIRECTOR

Ben has more than 20 years experience in assisting clients to manage and resolve tax disputes. Ben trained as an Inspector of Taxes and worked for HMRC's Large Business Team dealing with complex tax risks associated with the UK's largest companies and then worked for both PwC and latterly as Head of Corporate Tax Disputes leading Grant Thornton's London team. Ben has particular expertise in assisting companies to resolve complex corporate, international and partnership tax disputes and in supporting clients to manage tax risks and governance, especially optimising compliance with obligations under the Senior Accounting Officer and Criminal Finances Act 2017 provisions.
